A. where they hurriedly aressed, and were rushed out to the neld of action.

The Captains meet. A coin is tossed. Paris receives Richmond's kick. Burnam center on the Normal team, kicks the ball on the signal of the referee, and the two teams rush together. When the smoke is cleared away from the first skirmish, a Paris man is on the ball. With the ball in possession of the Paris team, their excelent team work proves to be a great advantage. The Normal boys are unable to organize their defensive after the shifts of their opponents in time to block their plays, so in four downs Paris scores. This they do for three consecutive times duringe the first period.

The second period the Paris team again makes three touch-downs, but on two occasions they fail to kick the goal, so the score stands 40 to 0 at the end of the first half.

The beginning of the second half, finds Normal receiving the kick of Baldwin, center on the Paris team. Workman, of the Normal team catches the ball, and is off for a touchdown, but his interference is not sufficient. He is overcome, he falls on the ball on the ten yard line. The ball now goes back and forth up and down the field, and at the end of the third period the ball is in about three yards of Normal's goal.

In the meantime Carson and Harrod with their war-whoops and yells succeed in keeping up the enthusiam of the Normal team. The line men, Covington, Dunaway, Woodman and Harrod, make a desparate attempt

The team was escorted to the Y. M. C. A. where they enjoyed a nice, refreshing swim in the fresh water pool in the basement of that fine building. They then dressed and enjoyed a fine supper and played games until 8 o'clock. They then attended a reception given by the Sophomore class of the Paris High School, in their honor. At 10:30 p. m., the boys met and after giving 15 yells for the Sophomore class and 15 for the football team, they departed for the station to catch the train for Richmond. THERE'S something about fried hominy dripping with BRER RABBIT syrup which just makes you forget your manners and pound the table with knife and fork, especially if you're still pretty young and crave sweets.

You can't get away from this fact: You eat syrup because you like it-not merely because it's sweet, but because it's delicious and gives a tantalizing zest to pancakes, muffins, biscuits.

The same with children. They eat lots of sliced bread when there's syrup on it—the flavor is the reason.

BRER RABBIT is a delightful "sweet," but it's the country made ribbon-cane flavor of BRER RABBIT which makes the children noisy.

SANFORD OLDHAM

HIGHER HONOR FOR SERGEANT YORK

Washington, D. C. Nov. 12.—Down in the fourth district of Tennessee there lives a man credited with the most outstanding individual achievement of any American in the World War. His name, already known to the majority of people in the United States, is Alvin C. York, and until recently he was sergeant of Company recently he was sergeant of Company G, 328th Infantry, 82nd. Division of the American Expeditionary Forces. A bill has been introduced by the Congressman from the Dirtrict in which Sergt. York now resides, Cordell Hull, to honor the soldier's heroic exploits by commissioning him a second lieutenant and then placing him on the retired list with pay and allowances of a retired second lieutenant. York virtually alone wiped out a German gun battalion, killed 25 of the enemy and captured 135 prisioners.

The military affairs committee of the House of Representatives is expected to report Congressman Hull's bill favorably, and similar action by the Senate is confidently predicted.

York, it will be remembered, was second elder of the Church of Christ and Christian Union in the section where he lived, near Wolf river, about five miles from the Kentucky border. Although deeply religious he declined to claim exemption as a conscientious objector, and, being declined to claim exemption as a conscientious objector, and, being convinced that his duty to country was justified by Bibical writings, he promptly devoted his attention to his military duties, rose from the ranks to be corporal, and then to a sergeantcy after his exploit.

On his return to the United States York was tendered a reception not received by any American soldier other than General Pershing, but he returned to his mountain home where returned to his mountain home where his mother and three small brothers his mother and three small brothers and sisters awaited him. All attempts to inveigle him into the movin a little book I carried on the battlefields of France something that I remembered. It said: "What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

So, with all these things in mind, Congressman Hull contends that an unusual distinction should be bestowed on Sergt. York, for he already hasthe Congressional Medal of Honor Distinguished Service Cross, etc.

"The question has been raised on this bill that it is unprecedented and might constitute a bad precedent."

Mr. Hull told the committee. "Mr. Chairman, this bill had to be, and was deliberately made unprecedent-was deliberately made unprecedent-eo because it was undertaking to deal with an unprecedented individual achievement. This soldier, it would matter not what rank might be conferred upon him now will always be known in this country as ways be known in this country as Sergt. York. It was in that individual capacity and in that capacity as a non-commissioned officer that this achievement was gained by him. A mere ordinary increase of rank would not suffice. It should be some unusual action."

John McCormack In Louisville

No event in years is causing the widespread interest as is the appearance of John McCormack, the celebrated tenor, in Louisville on Friday, November 21st. Mc-Cormack is today the world's most popular singer, and he has never before appeared in Louis-ville or in this section of the country, people from all over the state of Kentucky will attend this event. The management is making a particular effort to take care of out of town mail orders, and assure out of town patrons that they will be taken care of in the best possible manner.

The opportunity to hear a singer like McCormack is a rare one, and those who take advantage of it will hear a wonderful concert. Inquiries for seats should be addressed to the Civic Music Series, Stewart Dry Goods Co., Louisville. The manage-ment advises everyone to send in their orders early, to assure good locations.

The Big Clearance Sale which was inaugutated Nov. 1st and advertised to run for 10 days ending on Saturday, Nov. 8th, was a decided success, and hundreds of people took advantage of the many bargains we offered. However, so many of the country people told us Saturday that they had been unable to attend, and were coming to our store Monday morning expecting to purchase furniture which was advertised during the sale , that we have decided to continue this mammoth sale 10 more days.

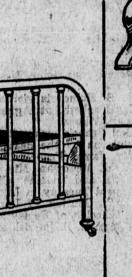

The school boys and girls of this county, are certainly working hard in the contest which was started at the opening of the 10 days sale. The prizes, namely; the Minature Majestic Range, Dolly's Minature Favorite Range, a Boy's Bicycle, and a Velocipede, are all on display at our store, and the boys and girls are registering their names as contestants and are working hard for the coveted prizes. There is still time for more boys and girls to enter the contest, which ends at Christmas time. Come on and get in the contest—a fair chance for everyone, and the prizes will be warded to the boys and girls sending to our store before Christmas the greatest amount of business.

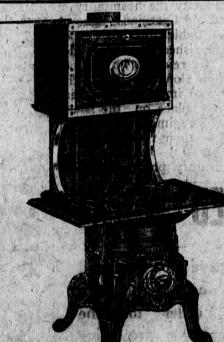

The low prices we are offering during this sale, are based on only the staple articles—the best grades manufactured in this country. It's a mighty easy proposition to offer low prices on articles that are not standard, and are built at about one-half the expense of standard lines. For the benefit of those who have never visited our store, and seen for themselves the standard goods we carry in stock, we are publishing a list of the different grades we are offering, which are all included in this mammoth sale.
